Sheen Goes Virtual

Sophisticated Sheen is getting an upgrade!

According to Sophisticated Sheen's owner, Valerie West, the locally owned clothing boutique is going domestic. You heard that right. Starting in the new year, Valerie will begin to sell her gorgeous fashions across the United States through online sales and even allow for custom pieces to be ordered.

For those of you not familiar with Sophisticated Sheen, it is a clothing boutique that caters to one of a kind pieces made by local designers such as Charlotte Lynch. Sophisticated Sheen is known for working directly with the designers to bring custom pieces to our very small town.

When interviewed, Valerie is quoted in saying "it was always my dream to open and own a clothing boutique. I just never realized I would be fortunate enough to work closely with so many amazing designers. I'm happy I can now bring those designs to more people and who knows where this journey will take me."

The residents of Willow Creek will certainly be watching closely to see what other exciting plans Valerie has up her sleeve.
